A Letter

19th March

Dear Program Director,

For the past couple of years I have been watching the TV broadcast of “Classical Music on Sunday” with great pleasure. It has been one of the very few programs these days that allow people like me to enjoy watching the art of classical music performance without having to pay to go to a concert in a far-away city. Indeed, I don’t have the energy to get out to concerts anymore. Nevertheless, I have often gotten together with friends who share the same enthusiasm to enjoy watching and discussing the performance on TV while having a good old cup of tea.

It is with great regret that I heard recently “Classical Music on Sunday” would stop being broadcast. At first I heard a rumor that this would be in May, then June. Other people told me it would be at the end of the year. Finally, I heard for sure that it would be at the start of next month. I am all the more disappointed that the new program is to be a historical drama program for young people.

Naturally, due to my age, I am very aware of the importance of history. In my opinion, young people should think about such issues, and I’m sure that they will be very happy watching the new program. However, there are already a great many programs of this kind on TV. I do not see the need for yet another one.

I know that this decision has already been made, and that you cannot change it now. I would, though, like you to at least recognize that some of us found great pleasure in the old programming, and will be very sad indeed when it stops.

Sincerely,

Lawrence Smith

37

- ① To tell about his time watching “Classical Music on Sunday”.
- ② To check when “Classical Music on Sunday” will stop being broadcast.
- ③ To complain about the end of the “Classical Music on Sunday” broadcast.
- ④ To argue about history programs.

問 3 When will “Classical Music on Sunday” stop being broadcast?

38

- ① March.
- ② April.
- ③ May.
- ④ June.

問 4 What does the writer mention doing with friends? 39

- ① Going out to concerts.
- ② Watching a performance.
- ③ Hearing about the end of “Classical Music on Sunday”.
- ④ Drinking and having a good old meal.

問 5 What does Lawrence Smith think young people should do? 40

- ① Watch “Classical Music on Sunday”.
- ② Think about such issues as classical music.
- ③ Think about history.
- ④ Go to concerts.
